

Gathering

Terms indicating the whole playing table, including players and current Host. The word is inspired by Renaissance academies, courts and other learned societies. The members of such groups will gather together regularly to exchange ideas, poetry, music and play parlor games.